

Kingfisher Sourcing Eastern Europe Sp. z o.o. is a buying office of the Kingfisher Group (an international home improvement company with nearly 1 300 stores in 10 countries across Europe, supported by a team of 78 000 professionals). We want to create good homes by making home improvement accessible for everyone. Our ambition is to become the leading home improvement company. To deliver our ambition, we need to become ONE company, which we will do by building on the already strong local identities, teams and communities across all our retail brands and functions. We are investing in working better together, to make the most of our scale and to better serve our customers. Due to its dynamic development is looking for candidates to join our team as:

Product Development Technician (Quality Technician)

Responsibilities:

- Support Engineers to Ensure product documentation, specification sheets, bills of materials, detail drawings, assembly drawings and instructions for use and installation of product developed based on Kingfisher requirements, manage sample sealing process
- Support Engineers to ensure that Kingfisher products and associated packaging and manuals meet quality, legal and safety requirements
- Follow up non-conforming from the factory audit, in line inspection, FRI inspection, quality complaints from internal customers, product returns. Identify/drive root cause analysis, corrective actions and preventive actions in factories
- Ensure that quality sourcing procedures are fully understood and implemented by factories, inspection and test agents
- Responsible for FRI inspections booking and evaluate results of inspections conducted by either 3rd party agencies or local team, define and obtain DCL. Occasionally conduct During Production Inspections and FRI inspections followed by relevant report,

You will spend 10% to 20% of the time traveling (mostly within the geographic footprint – Eastern Europe).

Qualifications:

- University undergraduate in Production/Chemical Engineering or other related engineering field
- Basic knowledge in quality and/or production
- Broad technical understanding of a diverse number of manufacturing techniques and processes related to DIY products
- Basic knowledge of building/construction products, paint, chemicals, plants aids
- Technical skills
- Willingness to develop strong time and project management skills
- Strong proficiency in MS Office required
- ISO quality system knowledge, QA and QC methods knowledge, basic experience with European standards and directives
- Good relational and writing abilities, dynamism; organizational and analytical capacities; have a sense of perspective, open-minded to international team work, leadership potential
- Fluent spoken and written technical English. Ability to communicate in French will be an advantage.

Benefits:

- Fixed 1-year contract with possibility of future extension
- Complete salary
- Attractive benefits (medical care, life insurance)
- International environment and a friendly working atmosphere

More information:

Anna Więclaw

HR Manager

Offer & Supply Chain | Warsaw

Human Resources

+48 22 334 90 25

+48 509 457 947